Who is collecting the data?

Navan Camera Club are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, Navan Camera Club is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What data is being collected?

You may give us information about you by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the Navan Camera Club, [subscribe to our newsletter, or participate in discussion boards on our website (www.navanclub.ie)] The information you give us may include your name, e-mail address, phone number, photography skills and preferences.

What is the legal basis for processing the data?

The reason we need your Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal data is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services in line with your registration.

Will the data be shared with any third parties?

Club does not store or transfer your personal data outside of Ireland and does not supply any personal data it holds to any other third party.

How will the information be used?

We will maintain a database for all current members and this will enable us communicate with you as and when necessary.

For how long will the data be stored for?

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Members data is updated every year on annual membership forms. We may keep your e-mail address for future communication purpose (newsletters, events, special meetings etc)

What rights do you have regarding your personal data

Under the GDPR you may have the right to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data. In the subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us we may not be able to register or administer your membership.

How to delete personal data from the Club's database.

You have the right anytime to request deletion of your personal data from the Club. In that occasion, please contact baron.smith@gmail.com with the details of your personal information
